The Week

Daily - except Saturday, 12 noon, Prayers and Intercessions.

Each Tuesday - 12:10, Healing Service.

Wednesday - Presentation of United Thank Offering, at Valley Forge - 10:30 A.M.
Red Cross meeting 10:30 - 4:00
12:10 HOLY COMMUNION and brief message.

Each Tuesday, at 12:10, the rector conducts a service of Healing, with prayers, short address, and the Laying on of Hands, with prayer, for the sick or those who come for prayer on behalf of someone else. This Prayer Book Service is one of our truly blessed ministries of the Church. Support it with your prayers, and your presence, as often as you can. It is for the "healthy", too. A program of prevention, as well as cure, is good medicine as well as good religion.

Saturday night, May 2nd, our solo soprano, Mrs.
Marjorie Nielsen, was the soloist at an important concert at the New York World's Fair.

We extend congratulations, on the birth of a son,
Mark Winslow on April 6th, to Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Lees.

At the United Thank Offering Presentation, to be held at Valley Forge Military Academy, May 13, at 10:30 A.M., the speaker will be Bishop Wright of East Carolina.

Four Bishops will assist with the Communion which will be carried from the High Altar to other locations in the Church, where the people will receive.

The New Home

THERE is nothing of magic about the month of June, but more homes are launched during this month than in any other month of the year.

Marriage is a gift—the gift of love. It is also a task. Two people to whom love has come pledge themselves to a lifetime of the disciplines that will enable this love to endure.

First, neither must swallow up the other. Husband and wife will become one, not as partners, but as branches grafted into the life of each other. But each has gifts and endowments peculiar to himself and herself, and each must respect the right of the other to remain a distinct and singular person.

Second, each must be the servant of the other. Marriage never succeeds on a 50-50 basis, each calculating to take his or her fair share, no more and no less. Each must give to the other love and care without measure.

Third, each must remember that a promise has been made to keep, no matter how rough the going may be. And for most husbands and wives the road does get rough; few people find marriage smooth and untroubled. Marriage is based not upon sentiment or emotion alone; underneath is the solid, unmoving foundation of a promise.

Fourth, words must be used for healing and not for wounding. The thoughtless or cruel word does great harm. Once spoken, it cannot be recalled. The tender and loving word, on the other hand, can cement and warm the hearts as nothing else.

Finally, to draw into the marriage the presence and the blessing of the Lord will be a continuing assurance of peace and joy. Husband and wife become dependent on one another; together they must depend on God. He gave them life and He gave them love. It is His desire to make of their home a place more like heaven than any other place on earth. It is their high privilege to let Him in.

Services this week

Daily intercessions 12-12:10 noon. (When any service is held at the 12:10 hour, such as Holy Communion or the Healing Service, the prayers and intercessions are incorporated in that service.)

Tuesday, 12:10, Healing Service
Wednesday, 12:10, Holy Communion

Thursday, June 11, 12:10, Holy Communion
(St. Barnabas)

Summer Schedule

It has been suggested that 10 o'clock be the hour for our second service in July and August. This will help us "beat the heat" somewhat, and also give families more time to do something on Sunday afternoons. We will continue the 9:00 A.M. service of Holy Communion through the summer, as it is now.

Two clergymen will be with us from other dioceses:

In July, the Rev. Henry Johnston, of Holy Trinity Church, Fayetteville, North Carolina.

In August, the Rev. Frederick Turner, St. Michael's Church, Seaford, Long Island, New York.

The rector knows both of these men very well. He has spoken often in Mr. Johnston's church, and has had Mr. Turner as priest-in-charge for a number of years, while on vacation from St. Mark's in Islip.

Altar Guild

One of the great joys in Church service is found by being a working member of the Altar Guild. Recently three new members have been added: Miss Anna B. Hewitt, Mrs. Alan Huet and Miss Margaret J. Nelson. We welcome these ladies to their new assignment, and know they will be greatly blessed in their service. Membership in the Altar Guild is by appointment by the Rector. You may, however, volunteer if interested by speaking to Mrs. Edward H. Ross, Chairman of the Guild, or notify the Rector. A letter of appointment is sent to each new member by the Rector.

The Time for Frolic

WITH summer come vacations and travel and play. Schoolrooms are closed and glad voices of children fill the neighborhood.

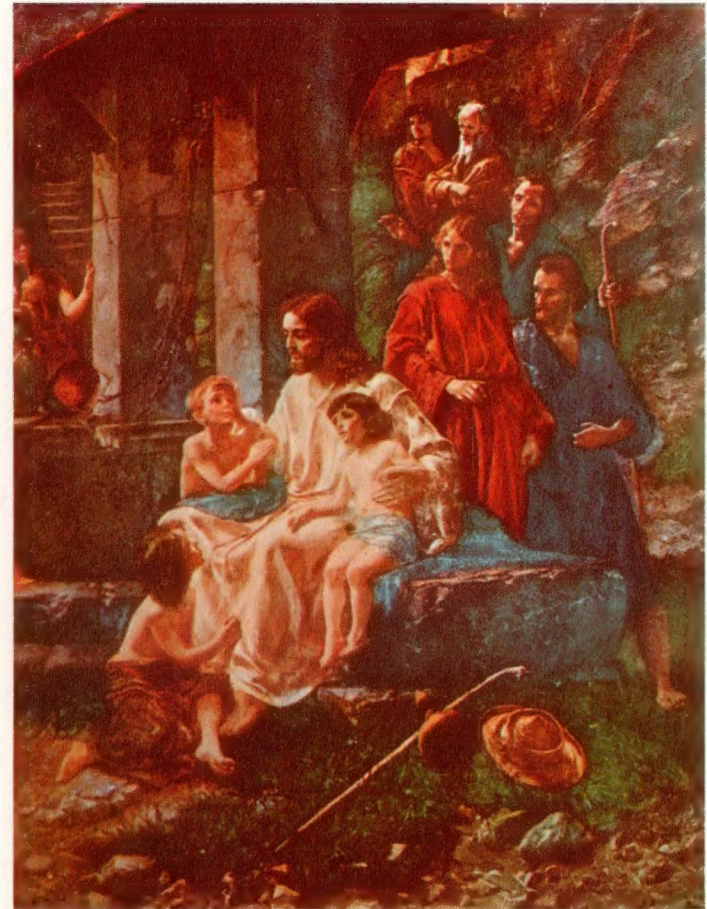

But children still belong to their parents, in summer as well as in winter. And parents and children together belong to God, the long year through. With God every season is the time for frolic. He has created us for gladness and joy.

We become as idolaters, worshipping at secondary altars, when we revel in His forests and mountains—but forget Him. With no intention of neglecting Him, we may nonetheless become so enraptured by the relaxations of the summer that we fail to pause in praise and thanksgiving.

To be sure, the heavens declare His glory and the firmament shows forth His handiwork. We can worship Him under the dome of the sky and against the cadences of the rushing stream. But He has set aside hours and places for our disciplined worship of Him. The church bells on Sunday summon us to gather together in a company dedicated to thank Him.

A nation that replaces the pew with automobiles or motorboats for the summer is in peril of abandoning the pew altogether. Children who are given recess from church during vacation months may quite readily conclude that worship may never be too important. Our children's minds have a sharp intuition. If brushing one's teeth must continue throughout the summer, but the worship of God be suspended, how can they conclude other than that toothbrushes are more important than God?

We who are parents have the awesome commission, under God, to bring His children (for they are really His) to Him. In summer as well as in winter, we are to usher them into His presence for praise and joy and fullness of heart.

Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them; for to such belongs the kingdom of God.

There Are Lessons

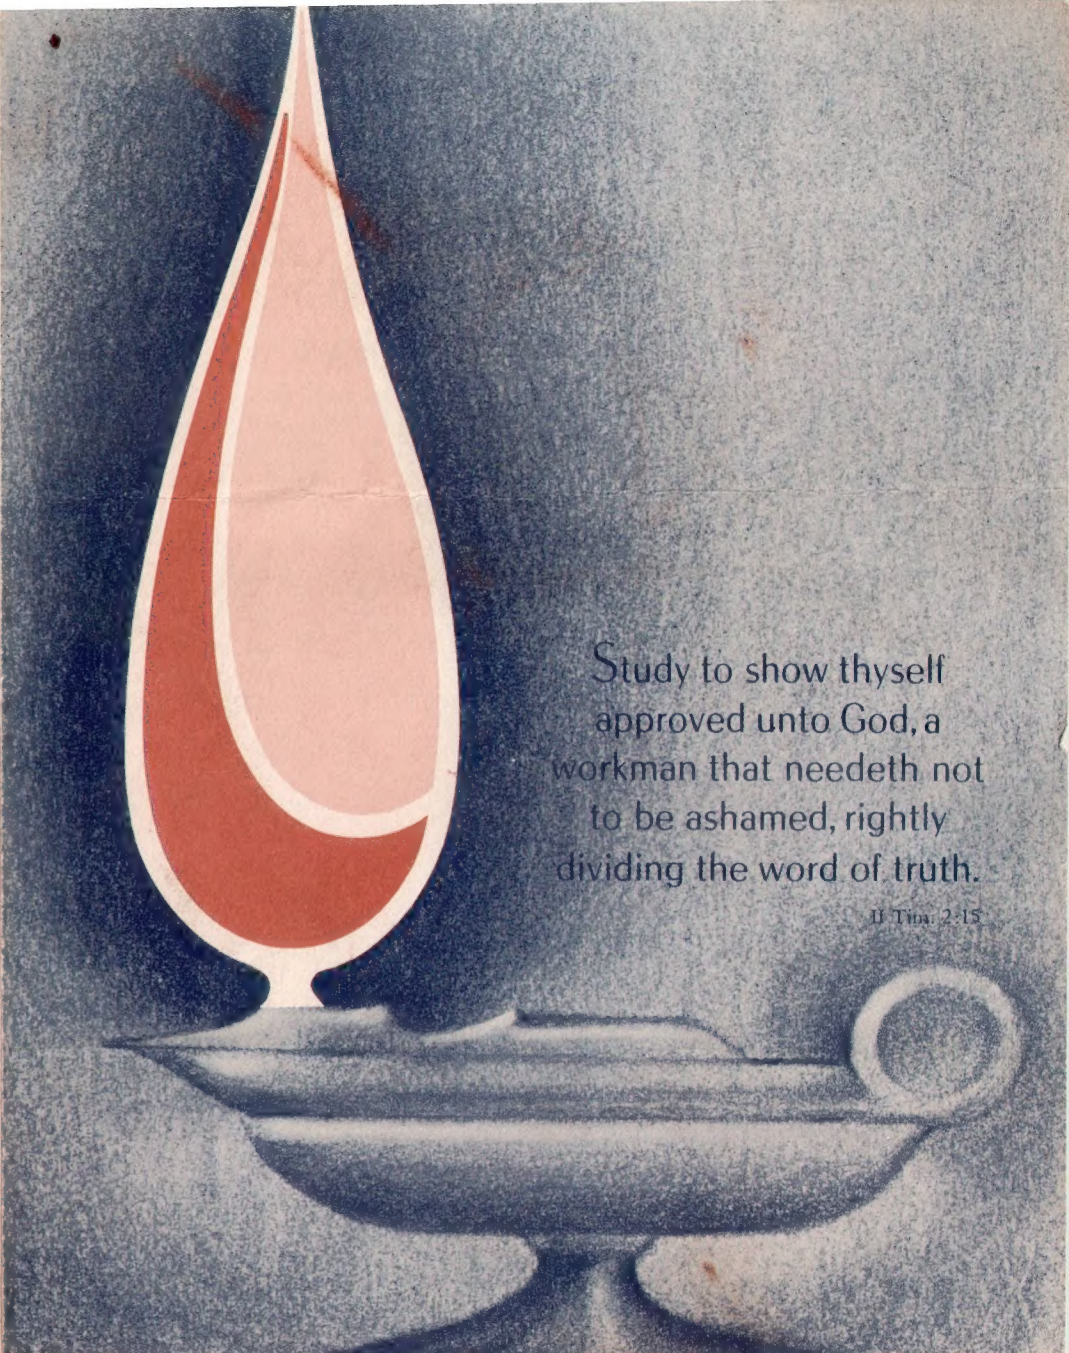

LIFE is a school. There are lessons to be learned. There are tests to be met. Until the final moment of graduation, when death releases us from this earth-bound school room, we will have our studies before us.

The Apostle Paul, speaking to his young friend Timothy, gives this counsel, "Study to show thyself approved unto God . . ." This entire universe is God's great school room. He designs the curriculum; He gives the examinations. We do our lessons for Him. Whatever approval we win from our fellowmen is of secondary importance. We study to win God's approval.

Many a man has had the plaudits of the crowd ringing in his ears, only to shrink away ashamed. For he knows the crowd is fickle, often ignorant and blind over against the true values of life. And he knows that the approval they give may be no real measure of his integrity or honesty. He can deceive the crowd into giving him a passing grade; he cannot deceive God.

The Apostle gives Timothy this further advice, ". . . show thyself approved . . . a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." The important lesson, after all, is God's own Word of Truth.

This Word declares that no man, however impressive his inventory of achievements, can fulfill God's assignment of holiness and righteousness. The year that is ending may have been a good year. You may have learned many good lessons, and learned them well. But at best, you will need now the lavish mercy of God. You cannot pass the examination on your own. Fortunately for you and me, there is mercy in this hour. Jesus Christ, by His life, death and resurrection, has provided us a way. He covers our sins, erases them, and presents us faultless before the great Divine Examiner. In this Word, the Word of His Holiness and the Word of His Mercy, we come to the hour of accounting with courage and peace.

Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.

ALTAR FLOWERS

The Altar Flowers are given to the Glory of God in memory of Mr. George Meckling, Jr.

Services This Week

Tuesday - 12 Noon - HEALING SERVICE
Wednesday - 12 Noon - HOLY COMMUNION
Thursday - 12 Noon - HOLY COMMUNION
(THE EPIPHANY)

The Red Cross meets every Wednesday from 10 A.M. to 3:30 P.M. New members welcome.

Altar Guild - Mrs. Robert M. Atkinson and Miss Margaret J. Nelson are on Altar duty for this Sunday.

Announcements

The Women of St. Luke and The Epiphany will meet on Tuesday, January 4th, at 2 P.M. Mrs. Minturn Wright will speak on "Intercessory Prayer." All members of the congregation are cordially invited to attend.

The Christmas Eve Service was a truly inspiring and beautiful occasion. The congregation was larger than our Christmas Day services of the last two years, and with the larger number coming on Christmas Eve, the Christmas service the next day was correspondingly much smaller than usual. However, the gain in attendance was considerable and from the enthusiastic remarks of so many, it seems right to retain the Christmas Eve service for next year.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL

May the New Year be a blessed one for you; may the Lord guide you and keep you; may the Peace of God be in your hearts and in your homes.

Services This Week

Tuesday - 12 Noon HEALING SERVICE
Ash Wednesday - 12 Noon HOLY COMMUNION,
PENITENTIAL OFFICE, LENTEN MEDITATION

Announcements

The Red Cross meets every Wednesday from 10:00 A.M. to 3:30 P.M. New members welcome.

Altar Guild - Mrs. Milton K. Mitchell and Mrs. Charles Sinkler are on Altar duty for this Sunday.

Ash Wednesday - Lent begins this coming Wednesday.
Our only service of the day will be at 12 noon. If you cannot be present at the start of the service, tradition dictates that if you are present in time to make the Confession, you may receive. There is a short Lenten Meditation. Also, the saying of the Penitential Office for Ash Wednesday, means Holy Communion will begin about 12:10, giving more time for office workers to get to church for the Eucharist and the message.

Crocuses are up in the Church Garden, telling us that better things are in store. On a very rainy day last Sunday our 11 A.M. attendance was over a hundred, which pleased the Rector greatly. I always feel we receive a special blessing when we get to Church in inclement weather. As Lent begins let us try real hard to get to Church every Sunday. Easter will mean so much more to us if we have followed a simple Lenten Rule of regular Church attendance, with private devotions daily in our homes.
